

Third-party sexual harassment contract clause

Please be aware that DDLMC Ltd will not tolerate sexual harassment in any form towards our staff. We enclose a copy of our Sexual Harassment Policy which you should read and ensure that you familiarise yourself with.

If you are deemed to have breached our Sexual Harassment Policy,

You will be warned that continued provision of your services to us will cease if you act in a similar way again. Should your behaviour recur, you will be informed that our use of your services will cease. Any criminal acts will be reported to the police, and we will share information relating to the incident with our other branches to ensure that we maintain a consistent approach to the cessation of your services.

OR you will be asked to leave the premises, and any criminal acts will be reported to the police. We will share information relating to the incident with our other branches to ensure that we maintain a consistent approach to the cessation of your services.

OR we will cease using your services with immediate effect and any criminal acts will be reported to the police. We will share information relating to the incident with our other branches to ensure that we maintain a consistent approach to the cessation of your services.

DDLMC Ltd

