Dear Jenny Bloggs

You have had an account created at the NHS Networks web site: <https://www.networks.nhs.uk>. Your user id is "jbloggs4000@nhs.net" and password is "jennybloggs". Please login and change your password using the link found in "My settings".

You have been made a member of our NHS Network "Primary Care Improvement Connect". You can now view content within our network, receive email notification of important network events and post to network forums, along with many other benefits. Visit the network at <https://www.networks.nhs.uk/nhs-networks/primary-care-improvement-connect> and don't forget to set your email and alert notification preferences with the 'My Settings' link which you'll find at the top of the page. Let us know if there's anything you'd like to see on this network web site to make our knowledge-sharing better and improve this service.

Your NHS Networks userid is "jbloggs4000@nhs.net". If you have forgotten your password please use the "Forgotten password" link to reset it.

Best wishes,

Step 2 – Change your password using the link found under “Your menu” then “My settings.”

The screenshot displays the NHS Networks website interface. At the top right, there are links for 'Logout' and 'Help'. The main header features the 'nhsnetworks' logo and a user profile icon with the text 'No profession set (set it)'. Below the header, a navigation bar includes links for 'News', 'Blog', 'Forums', 'Events', and 'Help'. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'NHS Networks' with a sub-header 'What NHS Networks can do', 'Create a network' with a sub-header 'Set up and maintain a network', and 'Manage content'. A red circle highlights the 'Your menu' dropdown, which contains links for 'Your menu', 'Your profile', 'Settings', 'Toolbox', 'Contact Networks support', 'Your networks', and 'Your connections'. The 'Settings' link is circled in red. Below the main content area, there is an 'Events calendar' section with a sub-header 'What now for pharmacy services?' and a date 'Tuesday, 16 January 2018'. There is also a 'From the forums' section with a sub-header 'Many thanks for your query. PCC will be running some Busting the myths about collaborative...'. The bottom of the page features a 'News' section with a sub-header 'Taking the stress out of effective presenting' and a date 'From 13 January 2018 a new EU directive called the Payment Services Directive comes'.

Step 3 – You can now access the network under “Your menu” then “Your networks.”

The screenshot shows the NHS Networks website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'nhsnetworks' logo, a user profile icon, and the NHS logo. Below the navigation bar, there's a 'Your menu' dropdown menu. The 'Your networks' option is circled in red. The main content area features a 'Welcome! You are now logged in.' message, a 'News' section with articles like 'Taking the stress out of effective presenting', 'NHS efficiency map', and 'Dentists can't pass on payment card fees', and a 'From the forums' section.

If you are already registered on NHS Networks.

Step 1 – You will receive the following email.

Step 2 – You can now access the network under “Your menu” then “Your networks.”

The screenshot displays the NHS Networks homepage. At the top, the NHS Networks logo is on the left, and the NHS logo is on the right. Below the logo, it states '117,995 members'. A navigation bar includes links for Home, News, Blog, Forums, Events, and Help. Below this, there are three main action buttons: 'NHS Networks' (What NHS Networks can do), 'Create a network' (Set up and maintain a network), and 'Manage content' (Manage content). A 'Your menu' dropdown is open, showing options like 'Your homepage', 'Settings', 'Profile', 'Toolbox', 'Contact Networks support', 'Your networks', 'Practice (10 High Impact Actions)', and 'Primary Care Improvement Connect'. The 'Your networks' option is circled in red. The main content area features an 'Events calendar' with a post about pharmacy services, a 'News' section with articles on project management, NHS efficiency, and dental fees, and a 'From the forums' section with a post about PCC.
