SALARIED GP

(6 – 8 sessions (negotiable) per week)

Our practice is looking for an enthusiastic, conscientious, caring doctor to join us as a salaried GP for 6 to 8 sessions per week. Pay £9000 - £9500 per session. Willing to wait for the right candidate. We offer six weeks annual leave and one week study leave. We encourage and help with the professional development of the incoming doctor to develop within the organisation with training as needed.

This is an exciting opportunity to work in a friendly, supportive, forward thinking training practice, working from a modern purpose built premises delivering high quality health care. We scored good on CQC inspection and secured outstanding for dementia care.

We work from two practice sites both of which are 15 minute's drive from Mansfield and Chesterfield, 10 minutes from M1 (J29). Our list size is 16,300.
